FEAST DAY

Next Sunday is Feast of the Baptism of the Lord which Jesus received from John the Baptist. It is an opportunity to remember our own Baptism and renew our Baptismal promises. Our Baptism was the Baptism of fire of love of the Holy Spirit. We constantly have that fire of love within us. We stoke it up by prayer and exercise it by doing good.

We pray for Peter Conway Corraneary, brother of Eleanor Gannon Kinkeen whose funeral took place on Fri. 1st Jan. in St. Joseph's Church Aughavas.
 May he Rest in Peace.

3rd January 2016

We are coming to the end of the Christmas season.

The three wise men travel a huge distance to see the child Son of God Jesus

They follow his star to guide them

the same star is with us as the risen Jesus always going before us guiding us through the darkness of this life

until we meet him face to face in the next life.

His light is in his words spoken to us in the gospels

His strength for the journey is in the Eucharist we receive.
